Michaeleen Terrana is a legal assistant at Levine, Blaszak, Block & Boothby, LLP who enjoys a broad spectrum of responsibilities. She supports LB3 attorneys in all client matters, drives business development opportunities for the firm, and operates as a coordinator for conferences and client outreach.

With over a decade of experience in the legal and communications technology fields, Michaeleen has developed a keen understanding of the industry, technologies, regulatory policies, and contract negotiation processes important to the enterprise consumer - with the perpetual goal of an efficient and strategically focused organization in mind.

Michaeleen's prior experience in MCI WorldCom's FCC-facing Department of Public Policy, and her freelance work as a media campaign coordinator, garnered her an appreciation and understanding for the ever-changing regulatory aspects of the industry, consumer perspective, and the inherent potential in strategic approaches to communications technologies.

She also serves as a licensed Notary Public in the District of Columbia.
